Adjustment Mechanism for Power Purchase Price (PPP)

Pursuant to the Amendment in the Section 31(4) of the Regulation of Generation, Transmission and Distribution of Electric Power Act 1997 (No. XL of 1997) approved through Finance Act, 2008, the consumer-end tariff of Faisalabad Electric Supply Company (FESCO) shall be reviewed on monthly basis for variation in Power Purchase Price (PPP) including fuel price variation. The adjustment in the consumer-end tariff shall be made according to the following formula:

$$\Delta PPP = \pm \frac{(PPP_{(Act)} - PPP_{(Ref)})}{(1 - L)}$$

Where:

- ΔPPP = Variation in Power Purchase Price including fuel price variation in terms of Rs./kWh purchased occurred in a month against the reference PPP
- $PPP_{(Act)}$ = Actual PPP (Rs./kWh purchased) during the month for which the adjustment is required to be made
- $PPP_{(Ref)}$ = Reference Power Purchase Price (PPP) of Rs. 5.4496/kWh
- L = Target losses which are 11.23% for FY 2008-09

The impact of change in the power purchase price in the bill of individual consumer will be calculated according to the following formula:

$$PPP \text{ Adjustment} = \pm \Delta PPP \cdot U_{(C)}$$

Where:

- $U_{(C)}$ = Units consumed by the consumer during the month for which the adjustment is required to be made

FESCO shall clearly indicate in the bill of a consumer the actual PPP (Rs./kWh purchased) for the month i.e. the month for which adjustment is required to be made, reference PPP and target losses.

FESCO shall submit its request for adjustment on account of PPP for a month by 15th of each month or the next working day in case a holiday falls on the 15th.

NEPRA shall within five working days approve the adjustment on account of PPP variation and send it to the federal government for notification in the official gazette.

Any tariff adjustment so determined by the Authority shall be immediately applicable to the extent of the tariff notified by the Federal Government as per Section 31(4) of the National Electric Power Regulatory Authority Act, 1997. In case the notified adjustment is different from the one allowed for the immediate application, the requisite adjustment for such a difference shall be made as soon as possible but not later than the succeeding billing month.
